Dear Sir

Landslip – B6344 Crag End, near Rothbury

Northumberland County Council wishes to make an application to the Local Pinch Point Fund for the above scheme.

As detailed in Section B7 (The Commercial Case), part c, of the Application Form, we would like to confirm the following the position in support of our application:

1. We have a Corporate Commercial Strategy and business processes in place that provide a clear and legally compliant delivery of all of the County Council's transactions with third parties for the supply of goods and services;

2. This scheme will be subject to processes and controls that will ensure that they are lawful and will be fully compliant with Public Contracts Regulation , European Union State Aid rules and any other relevant legislation and recommended best practice for public sector procurement; and

3. The scheme will apply a procurement strategy that will achieve the best value for money outcome.

Yours faithfully

Steven P Mason
