

Specialist College information

Hedleys College

Hedleys College is situated in Newcastle across two sites, Station Road Forrest Hall and Tankerville Terrace Jesmond.

Hedleys offer provision for special educational needs pupils, providing direct therapy and education in small groups. They offer 1:1 support and specialist input from their interdisciplinary team including speech and language therapy, physiotherapy, hydro therapy, occupational therapy, hearing impairment, visual impairment, nurse and rehabilitation support.

For further information contact Tel: 0191 2665491 or m.webb@percyhedley.org.uk
n.anderson@percyhedley.org.uk

Dilston College

Specialist residential education and care for pre-16, post-16 and post-19 students. Dilston provide support to children with Autism, Asperger's Syndrome, severe learning disabilities, challenging behaviour and complex needs.

For further information contact 0800 138 1184, email education@cambianguroup.com or to see the brochure
http://www.cambianguroup.com/portals/0/schools/schlid_161/facilities/brochures/3785d627-add4-450f-a7ad-925d94daf05b.pdf

ESPA

ESPA College, based in Sunderland and Newcastle, provide residential and day education for young people between the ages of 16 and 25 with an Autism Spectrum Condition.

Contact Admissions Assistant allison.hardy@espa.org.uk or Tel: 0191 510 2611 Or to see the prospectus <http://www.espa.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2014/01/ESPA-College-Prospectus.pdf>

Northern Counties College

Northern Counties College is located in Jesmond close to Newcastle City Centre. Northern Counties provide education, therapy and care for children and young people from 3-19 years. They offer day and residential special education for children who have a hearing or visual impairment, those with profound and multiple learning disabilities and autistic spectrum disorders.

For more information please contact Director of Education Lynn Watson on 0191 2381314 or visit <http://www.ncs.percyhedley.org.uk/>