NCC provides its Service to Trusted Users, subject to the following T&C which may be updated by NCC from time to time without notice, although NCC will endeavour to notify changes to Trusted Users through the Host Site. Permission to use The Service is at the sole discretion of NCC and permission will be refused if NCC has reason to believe that the proposed User Site will be outside of the Host Site aim, values and ethos or that any applicant will use The Service in contravention of the T&C

3. HOST SITE AIM

The aim of the Host Site is to encourage, promote and sustain the social, economic and environmental wellbeing of the inhabitants of Northumberland by creating a single point of access to a comprehensive range of local community information.

4. HOST SITE VALUES

All use of the Host Site is underpinned by the ethical and social values of equality, fairness, tolerance and impartiality. It is an inclusive Service that seeks to involve and engage all sections of the community regardless of race, ethnicity, religion or belief, gender, age or sexual orientation. The objective of The Service is to allow brief details and contact information on groups to be made available and not to provide a platform for debate or to upload the opinions of those groups. In return for using of the Service, Trusted Users agree to provide true, accurate, complete and up-to-date information about themselves using the Service's application form and maintain and promptly update that information to keep it true, accurate, complete and up-to-date. If Trusted Users fail to provide such information or provide any information that is untrue, inaccurate, not current or incomplete, or NCC has reasonable grounds to suspect that such information is untrue, inaccurate, not current or incomplete, NCC has the right to refuse any and all current or future use of the Service by that Trusted User. Trusted Users understand and agree that The Service may include certain communications from NCC, such as Service and news announcements, administrative messages, surveys and consultations. NCC will not disclose this information to any third party without the consent of the Trusted User. Trusted Users agree that NCC may notify Trusted Users from time to time of Services and goods offered by third parties in cases where NCC believes this may contribute to the promotion of the social, economic and environmental wellbeing of the area. Trusted Users understand and agree that NCC may use their information in order to carry out surveys, questionnaires or consultations to support the work of NCC and partners.
