Medical Assessment

Where there is any doubt about eligibility, Northumberland County Council may seek independent medical evidence to inform their decision. If we need you to have an assessment we will pass any information you have given us to an independent organisation who will carry out the assessment for us.

Charges

We cannot refund any charges you may have to pay your medical specialist for providing evidence of your disability

Part 2: Disability and Medical Conditions

On submission of your application please provide the necessary evidence for the category for which you are applying. If you are applying by post, please do not send original documentation, we cannot accept responsibility for the safe return of any documents that are sent to us:

A. I am registered blind or partially sighted

Proof of Eligibility – The evidence required (one of the following):

- Proof of registration
- Certificate of vision impairment (CVI) form or BD8
- A letter from an eye specialist confirming that you are blind or partially sighted
- Your Blue Badge (parking permit), a copy showing both sides
- Armed Forces Compensation Scheme award document showing details of the relevant disability

B. I am severely or profoundly deaf

Proof of Eligibility – The evidence required (one of the following):

- Audiological report from an aural specialist indicating hearing loss has reached 70-95 dBHL in both ears. The hearing loss will be calculated from the better ear and taken as an average across the normal hearing spectrum
- Armed Forces Compensation Scheme award document showing details of the relevant disability

C. I am without speech

This does not include persons whose speech is slow or difficult to understand because of, for example, a severe stammer.

Proof of Eligibility – The evidence required (one of the following):

- Personal Independence Payment (PIP) 8 points or more (Communicating verbally)
- Evidence from a medical professional that you are unable to communicate orally in any language

D. I am without the use of both arms

Proof of Eligibility – The evidence required (one of the following):

- Your Blue Badge (parking permit), a copy showing both sides
- Medical evidence to support that you are unable to use both arms for day to day tasks
- Armed Forces Compensation Scheme award document showing details of the relevant disability

E. I have a walking disability

Do you receive the Higher Rate Mobility Component of Disability Living Allowance (DLA) or receive the Enhanced Rate Mobility Component of Personal Independence Payment (PIP)?

Yes No

Do you receive the War Pensions Mobility Supplement or a benefit under the Armed Forces Compensation Scheme?

Yes No

Proof of Eligibility – The evidence required:

If yes to any of the above we need to see the full award letter that confirms you have been awarded DLA, PIP, War Pensions mobility supplement or a lump sum under the Armed Forces Compensation Scheme

Do you hold a Blue Badge parking permit?

Yes No

Proof of Eligibility – The evidence required:

If yes please provide the Badge Reference Number, the expiry date, and a copy showing both sides.

Badge Reference: Expiry Date:

If you have answered no, to all of the above, you may still qualify if you have a disability or have suffered an injury which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on your ability to walk or be unable to walk at all.

Proof of Eligibility – The evidence required (one of the following):

- A letter or statement completed by a Doctor or medical professional confirming in accordance with Department of Transport guidance that ‘you are unable to walk more than 64 metres without severe discomfort’.
- Section 5 of this application completed by a Doctor or medical professional confirming your eligibility

F. I have a significant learning disability

This is a state of arrested development of mind which includes significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning. The learning disability must have started before adulthood and have a lasting effect on development. This means a significant reduced ability to understand new or complex information, a significant difficulty in learning new skills and be unable to cope independently, e.g. household tasks, socialising or managing money – which affects someone for their whole life.

This includes:

- Down Syndrome
- Severe autistic spectrum disorders
- Other learning disabilities which means that you:
 - Have difficulty in understanding new or complex information, and
 - have difficulty learning new skills, and
 - are not able to cope independently

You will not be eligible under this category because of:

- Dyslexia or attention deficit disorder – these would not qualify as ‘significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning’.
- Dyspraxia – this is incomplete physical development, rather than incomplete development of mind
- Mental Health problems
- ADHD – Attention deficit hyperactivity disorder
- Any condition which started after you became an adult (e.g. brain injury)

Proof of Eligibility – The evidence required (one of the following):

- Letter from the manager or the residential home or supported accommodation where you are a resident
- Letter from a medical professional or Social Services who has you under their care, stating that you have a significant learning disability as defined above
- Statement of Special Educational Need

G. I have a medical condition that means I am unable to apply for/hold a UK driving licence

If you hold a valid driving licence (full or provisional), or your condition is a direct result of the misuse of drugs or alcohol you will not be eligible under this category. This category covers disabilities which are likely to cause your driving of vehicles to be a source of danger to the public. For example dementia, cardiac disorders, severe mental disorders and long term epilepsy.

Proof of Eligibility – The evidence required (one of the following):

- Recent letter from the DVLA indicating refusal or withdrawal of your licence for a minimum of 12 months
- Letter from a medical professional, confirming that you are unfit to drive, detailing the reasons and the length of time for which you will be unable to drive
- Armed Forces Compensation Scheme award document showing details of the relevant disability

Eligibility for a Companion Pass

If you are unable to travel alone you may be entitled to a companion pass. Your companion may be a carer, relative or friend of any age. The pass allows you and your companion to travel free of charge as per the Northumberland concessionary bus pass scheme.

Do you wish to apply for a companion pass? (see eligibility criteria outlined below)

Yes No (if no proceed to part 4)

To qualify for a companion pass you must first be eligible for a disabled persons travel pass, and then answer yes to one of the following questions:

Do you receive the Higher Rate Care Component of Disability Living Allowance ?

Yes No

Do you receive the Enhanced Rate Daily Living Component of Personal Independence Payment?

Yes No

Do you receive the Attendance Allowance at the Higher Rate?

Yes No

Proof of Eligibility – The evidence required (one of the following):

- Department of works and pensions award letter confirming the applicant is in receipt of the Higher Rate Care Component of Disability Living Allowance
- Department of works and pensions award letter confirming the applicant is in receipt of the Enhanced Rate Daily Living Component of Personal Independence Payment.
- Department of works and pensions award letter confirming the applicant is in receipt of Attendance Allowance at the Higher Rate.

Your companion is not issued a separate pass. A companion pass has an orange stripe down the right hand side of the pass with a C+ symbol at the top right hand corner which tells the driver that you require a companion. Your companion CANNOT use your pass without you.

Part 4: Submitting your Application

Please ensure you supply:

- One COPY of a proof of identity
- One COPY of a proof of address document
- One passport style/sized colour photograph
- One COPY of proof of disability document
