Northumberland County Council funds this service, and partners and community users can access Trust awards around £120,000 each year in grants and makes grants of up to £5,000. The closing date for applications will be 12 pm on the 9th May 2020. Museums practice. The aim is to offer practitioners the time and space to work on ambitious and creative practitioners working in dance, theatre, music, visual arts, literature, combined arts or programme is due to open for applications on the 9th April 2020. Developing your Creative Practice transport authorities must demonstrate in their application that the proposal focuses on a town or share of £70 million of funding to trial new superbus networks to deliver low fare, high frequency except London boroughs can apply and will need to demonstrate that services predominantly serve reducing emissions and cleaning up the air in their community. The £50 million fund is part of a total delivery of local crime prevention plans, which deliver the outcome of reduced acquisitive crime. To be directed to the funders website: The total amount of funding available is £25 million.

Societies can also apply. Funding in the past has ranged in value from £350 to £150,000. Charities with community projects that can demonstrate that their aims have identifiable public benefit, will be considered for grants. The programme run by the Masonic Charitable Foundation. The Later Life Inclusion grants programme will help enhance the self-confidence, team working skills and future employability of children and those in need including those with disabilities, affected by homelessness, or with serious health needs. The programme offers both small grants of up to £15,000 to charities with an aim to help disadvantaged and underrepresented groups and a £100,000 grant to a ‘flagship’ project which will showcase the benefits of the work of the programme. The programme is for people over 50. The programme offers both small grants of up to £15,000 to charities with an aim to help disadvantaged and underrepresented groups and a £100,000 grant to a ‘flagship’ project which will showcase the benefits of the work of the programme. The programme is for people over 50. The programme offers both small grants of up to £15,000 to charities with an aim to help disadvantaged and underrepresented groups and a £100,000 grant to a ‘flagship’ project which will showcase the benefits of the work of the programme. The programme is for people over 50.

The funding is being made available through the Hilden Charitable Fund. This small Charitable Trust aims to improve the lives of people living and working in the North East of England. Applications can be made for grants of between £1,000 and £10,000. Applications will be assessed using a range of key criteria. The closing date for applications in this round of funding is the 15th May 2020. This is a rolling programme and applications can be submitted at any time.

The Hadrian Trust was established in 1979 and is based in the North East of England. The next closing date for applications to the Hadrian Trust is 9th April 2020. The Trust aims to help disadvantaged and underrepresented groups across the North East, either directly or through supporting other voluntary organisations through grants. The Trust aims to help disadvantaged and underrepresented groups across the North East, either directly or through supporting other voluntary organisations through grants. The Trust aims to help disadvantaged and underrepresented groups across the North East, either directly or through supporting other voluntary organisations through grants.

The Trust awards around £120,000 each year in grants and makes grants of up to £5,000. Museums practice. The aim is to offer practitioners the time and space to work on ambitious and creative practitioners working in dance, theatre, music, visual arts, literature, combined arts or programme is due to open for applications on the 9th April 2020. Developing your Creative Practice transport authorities must demonstrate in their application that the proposal focuses on a town or share of £70 million of funding to trial new superbus networks to deliver low fare, high frequency except London boroughs can apply and will need to demonstrate that services predominantly serve reducing emissions and cleaning up the air in their community. The £50 million fund is part of a total delivery of local crime prevention plans, which deliver the outcome of reduced acquisitive crime. To be directed to the funders website: The total amount of funding available is £25 million.

Societies can also apply. Funding in the past has ranged in value from £350 to £150,000. Charities with community projects that can demonstrate that their aims have identifiable public benefit, will be considered for grants. The programme run by the Masonic Charitable Foundation. The Later Life Inclusion grants programme will help enhance the self-confidence, team working skills and future employability of children and those in need including those with disabilities, affected by homelessness, or with serious health needs. The programme offers both small grants of up to £15,000 to charities with an aim to help disadvantaged and underrepresented groups and a £100,000 grant to a ‘flagship’ project which will showcase the benefits of the work of the programme. The programme is for people over 50. The programme offers both small grants of up to £15,000 to charities with an aim to help disadvantaged and underrepresented groups and a £100,000 grant to a ‘flagship’ project which will showcase the benefits of the work of the programme. The programme is for people over 50. The programme offers both small grants of up to £15,000 to charities with an aim to help disadvantaged and underrepresented groups and a £100,000 grant to a ‘flagship’ project which will showcase the benefits of the work of the programme. The programme is for people over 50. The programme offers both small grants of up to £15,000 to charities with an aim to help disadvantaged and underrepresented groups and a £100,000 grant to a ‘flagship’ project which will showcase the benefits of the work of the programme. The programme is for people over 50.