What to expect from us

- Your Portage Home Visitor will agree with you a mutually convenient time to visit
- If for any reason your Portage Home Visitor is unable to make the planned visit, we will contact you to cancel and re-arrange
- Your Portage Home Visitor will provide and leave you with the resources needed to carry out the teaching activities planned for your child
- Whenever possible your Portage Home Visitor will attend multi-agency meetings regarding your child

What we expect from you

- If your child is ill, or you are unable to keep the planned visit then please contact your Portage Home Visitor, as soon as possible, to cancel and rearrange another appointment
- All resources left for your use between Portage visits must be returned to your Portage Home Visitor complete and in the same condition or you may be asked to contribute to it's replacement
- Please actively participate during Portage sessions with your child and continue to practice the activities modelled and discussed between visits ie minimise distractions (turn TV off)
- Please keep your Portage Home Visitor up-to-date with any relevant information or appointments that your child may have
