LEARNING TOGETHER AT HOME: WEEK 6

Early Years Northumberland

Hello everyone and welcome to week 6. On Friday this week is Booktrust's Pyjamarama day so all the activities this week are fun things to do in your pyjamas!

Build a cosy den, like Belle and Billy in the story, using whatever you have - it could be a big cardboard box, a pop-up tent or just using blankets and pillows. Snuggle up in there with your favourite soft toy or share a story in the dark using a torch.

Pretend to have a pyjama party or sleepover. You could share delicious hot chocolate together or even have a 'midnight' feast. You could make a list of all the things you'll need to plan the 'party'.

Make simple puppets using toilet roll middles then create your own 'theatre' using chairs and a blanket to tell your story. Click here to watch Eve tell her story.

Lullabies are special songs to help us relax and go to sleep. Click here to listen to Amy singing 'I can sing a rainbow' and see how it makes you feel.

Design your own pair of pyjamas. What pictures, shapes or patterns will they have on them? Are they for you or someone else? Perhaps you could make them to fit your favourite toy?

Why not put a teddy in your window like Belle and Billy did this week?
