Hi

Those of you who have signed the “Increase Funding for Schools” petition on the Parliamentary site will have received a message indicating that there will be a Parliamentary debate on 4 March 2019. In advance of that I intend to send all f40 MPs a copy of our latest Briefing Paper so that they can pick out arguments to make on the day, particularly about fair funding.

The petition currently has 80,000 signatures – an increase of 28,000 since f40 put its weight behind it a few weeks ago. If you haven't yet signed it please consider doing so by following this link:
