

Bellingham Place Programme Pen Portrait

Name: Brian Tilley

Job Title: Vice chairman

Organisation: Bellingham Town Hall Committee

I am a journalist and author who has lived in Bellingham for 48 years. Worked on the Hexham Courant newspaper for 43 years, firstly as chief reporter and eventually became deputy editor, and remain a contributor since retirement in 2016. Voted North East Journalist of the Year three times. Involved in many Bellingham organisations over the years, from PTA and school governor to secretary of various groups including angling club, North Tyne and Redewater Twisty Roads Preservation Society charity group and town hall committee, Also serve on parish council.