

Bellingham Place Programme Pen Portrait

Peter Robert Loyd
Retired

I moved to Bellingham in 1984 became a stock farmer and ran the Hesleyside Estates for the Charlton family from 1984 until handing over to my son William Charlton in 2007. Previous to that I was a soldier and helicopter pilot, and managing director of a London wine merchant.

Relevant to this local appointment, I was a founding member of the Bellingham Community Trust in 1989 and President from 1997; Chairman of Bellingham Show 1993 - 2009; member of the National Parks Committee 1995 - 98, Trustee of the Reed Hall Charity 2016 – present; Trustee of The Calvert Trust Kielder 1995 to present and High Sheriff of Northumberland 20013/14.