

Alan Ferguson OBE

Director, Fergusons Transport

Alan has been the Chair of the Energising Blyth Partnership since the Town Deal was developed in 2020.

Alan has worked in Blyth all his working life and have many business interests in the town.

Alan was born in November 1954 in Blyth, was schooled in the town then joined the family business in 1970. He continued studies at Bath Lane College, Newcastle then Durham University.

Past roles

President of Rotary Club of Blyth 1993

Board member of Northumbria Ambulance Service Trust (10 years)

Board member of Community Foundation for Northumberland and Tyne & Wear

Board member of North East Chamber of Commerce (President 2003-05 then Chairman).

Fergusons has many blue-chip customers including multinationals like Nissan as well as many local businesses like S and B EPS Cramlington. Our ethos is to build long term relationships through honesty, loyalty and hard work. We have many employees who work with us long term in a family atmosphere. We are involved in many environmentally friendly projects having installed multiple solar panels installations, ground source and biomass heating systems.

Alan Ferguson current roles:

Executive Chairman, Fergusons Blyth Limited

Executive Chairman, Fergusons Transport Limited

Partner in Fergusons Partnership

Trustee of Fergusons (Blyth) Ltd Self-Administered Pension Scheme

Director of the English Whisky Guild

Partner in Ad Gerfin LLP

Director of Ad Gerfin Distillery LLP

Alan was awarded an OBE in the 2015 New Year's Honours List.