

Helen Golightly

Chief Executive of the North East Local Enterprise Partnership

Helen has been Chief Executive of the North East Local Enterprise Partnership since 2015, which is the economic development agency for the North East area covering the North of Tyne and North East Combined Authorities. She has over 30 years' experience in town planning, economic development, regeneration, fund management and complex programme management.