

Juliemma McLoughlin

Executive Director, Regeneration, Commercial and Economy

As Executive Director, I aim to place Northumberland at the forefront of new initiatives and ensure local residents get the most out of every strategic development opportunity across the region.

My role is to shape and lead the economic development future for Northumberland, ensuring the council makes the most of its assets and infrastructure by working in partnership with Advance Northumberland, the North of Tyne Combined Authority and Borderlands Investment Growth Deal.