

Events and partner events where we promoted the farmer survey

- Biomass Connect event, at Cockle Park - Wed 3 July, 10am - 3pm - at this event, taking part
- Northumberland Wildlife Trust are running 5 events in the area near Druridge / The Coquet: 20 June 3pm - 7pm at Widdrington Station Area Training & Activity Centre; 25 June 3pm - 7pm at Warkworth Memorial Hall; 1 July 3pm - 7pm at Amble Parish Hall; 8 July at 3pm - 7pm at Cresswell Village Hall; 10 July 3pm - 7pm at Hadston House. More information on their facebook page.
- "Understanding your carbon footprint as a livestock farmer" - a LEAF workshop with Newcastle University Farms, at Nafferton Farm - 18 July, 10am - 4pm - at this event, taking part
- Royal Countryside Fund event at The Sill, Tuesday 30 July, 1pm - 3pm
- Budle Hall Self Sufficiency Festival - Saturday 17 August - the Coast National Landscapes team will be here
- Glendale Show - bank holiday Monday, 26 August - the National Park and the Great Northumberland Forest (GNF) Team will be here with a focus on the Border Uplands area, but happy to discuss thoughts from areas wider than this
- Friday 30th August - at Hexham Mart from 8am - welcome to meet and discuss
- Bellingham Show - Saturday 31 August - again the National Park and the GNF team, with a focus on the Border Uplands area, but happy to discuss wider thoughts
- 4 events are being planned for September to cover the North Northumberland Coast area, at the moment we have the dates for 2 of them: 1) Warkworth Golf Course on Tue 3 September at 6pm; and 2) Widdrington WI hall on Thur 26 September at 6pm. Both events are free and include a light supper.
- We are planning 3 events in the North of Tyne Lowlands area: 1) one at Rising Sun Countryside Centre on 4 September, 2) one at the Lit and Phil in Newcastle on 11 September, and 3) one at Choppington Social Welfare on 1 October.
- A screening of "Six Inches of Soil" in Rothbury on the 13th September 7pm (Jubilee Hall)
- Rothbury's "Great Big Green Event" on Saturday 14th September 10am-4pm (Jubilee Hall)
- Demystifying Woodland Management event, Wednesday 25 September, 1pm, hosted by The Andersons at Dunterley Farm, Bellingham - colleague Emily Suddes will be here with LNRS brochures. Book by emailing admin@thefarmernetwork.co.uk or 07714 187034.
- Alternative Land Uses event, 26 September, (:30am - 3pm, Kirkharle. Colleagues Mark Child and Hermina Ely will be here with LNRS brochures booking form on Farmers' Weekly website
- The "Autumn Town and Parish Council Conference" - we will have a stall in the "market place" on the evening of 3 October in the foyer of County Hall, Morpeth.
- The Farmed Landscape event - grassland monitoring tool, in partnership with Tyne Rivers Trust and Northumbrian Water, 16th October, 3pm - 6pm, Whitfield Parish Hall, NE47 8HD. Contact d.anderson-hire@tyneriverstrust.org