

Vicky Potter

Department for Work and Pensions Northumberland Local Partnership Manager

I've been a civil servant for more than 25 years, and with DWP since 2017.

My current role is to build strong relationships and share knowledge to support economic growth, employment and progression opportunities for DWP customers. I also identify and engage with stakeholder forums and boards aligned to local priorities.