

Our weekly fees for older people's care homes in Northumberland are set out in the table below. To be recognised as "gold standard" a home must be rated by the Care Quality Commission as "outstanding"; to be recognised as "silver standard" it must be rated as "good".

| Care home fees2018/19 |                         |                               |                          |                                 |
|---------------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------------|--------------------------|---------------------------------|
|                           |                         | 30 registered bedsor less | 31-40 registeredbeds | More than 40registered beds |
| Gold standard             | Residential             | 575.77                        | 570.37                   | 559.58                          |
|                           | Residentialdementia | 599.22                        | 593.82                   | 583.04                          |
|                           | Nursing*                | 575.77                        | 570.37                   | 559.58                          |
|                           | Nursing dementia*       | 617.57                        | 612.19                   | 601.41                          |
| Silver standard           | Residential             | 562.50                        | 557.10                   | 546.32                          |
|                           | Residentialdementia | 585.53                        | 580.14                   | 569.36                          |
|                           | Nursing*                | 562.50                        | 557.10                   | 546.32                          |
|                           | Nursing dementia*       | 603.58                        | 598.20                   | 587.41                          |
| Bronze standard           | Residential             | 548.25                        | 542.85                   | 532.07                          |
|                           | Residentialdementia | 571.36                        | 565.96                   | 555.17                          |
|                           | Nursing*                | 548.25                        | 542.85                   | 532.07                          |
|                           | Nursing dementia*       | 589.43                        | 584.04                   | 573.25                          |

* Nursing rates exclude the Funded Nursing Care contribution.