Northumberland Pay and Display Parking Permit

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE

Permits are issued subject to the following terms and conditions:

- The permit can be used in the following pay and display areas across Northumberland: Alnmouth Railway Station, Bamburgh, Beadnell, Berwick Railway Station, Corbridge, Craster, Holy Island, Morpeth Railway Station (South), Newton by the Sea, Seahouses and Country Park Car Parks.
- The permit must be clearly displayed on the inside of the windscreen.
- In Corbridge you must display a parking disc (which must be set to indicate the time of arrival) with your permit. If parking outside chargeable hours, then set your parking disc to the start of the next chargeable period.
- Never park in a disabled person's bay unless you or a passenger can display a valid blue badge.
- It is the driver's responsibility to ensure the vehicle is legally parked at all times and the necessary signage has been read.
- If the driver fails to comply with any of the parking regulations they may receive a Penalty Charge Notice.
- NCC cannot guarantee a parking space will always be available.
- If the permit is lost a new permit can be purchased for the remaining months. The cost of this will be based on the appropriate apportionment of the full annual cost.
- If the permit is stolen or damaged an administration fee of £25 is payable for a replacement. Evidence must be provided i.e. produce the damaged permit itself or provide us with a crime number from the police if the permit has been stolen.
- No refund will be made for any un-expired period, if the permit is no longer required.
- Amendments and photocopies invalidate the permit. NCC reserves the right to revoke your permit and prohibit you from applying for future permits.
- NCC reserves the right to change the terms and conditions of use at any time subject to public notice.
- Parking is subject to the current Parking Orders, copies of which can be viewed online at parking.northumberland.gov.uk or at the Northumberland County Council offices at County Hall, Morpeth, during office hours.
