Background

NCC Education Department (via NCC Planning) in order to fulfil an outstanding planning condition, made a request to the Highways Design Section. The brief was to provide a scheme design to fulfil this requirement.

A scheme to introduce 'No Waiting At Any Time' Restrictions (Double Yellow Lines) was prepared. The aim is to introduce double yellow lines at the junction of Swansfield Park Road and Lindisfarne Road to ensure no parking takes place which would otherwise impede the required visibility splay.
